

Step-by-Step Guide for Enrolling in the Self-Paced New Instructor Pre-Orientation Course (NIPO)

Important!

To complete this activity, you will either need an SIU email and password or contact the CTE to obtain access (teach@siu.edu).

Step 1: Go to “New Instructor Pre-Orientation (NIPO)” page

1. Log into MyCourses
 - a. Use your SIU account with your SIU email address and password to access the interview site (or follow the instructions provided by CTE administrator to log in with your personal email)
2. If prompted, verify your access using the Microsoft Authenticator app. Go to the SIU Office of Information Technology for more information.
3. Find the New Instructor Pre-Orientation page through self-register in D2L.
4. Use the Discover (Search) bar to search for “New Instructor Pre-Orientation”

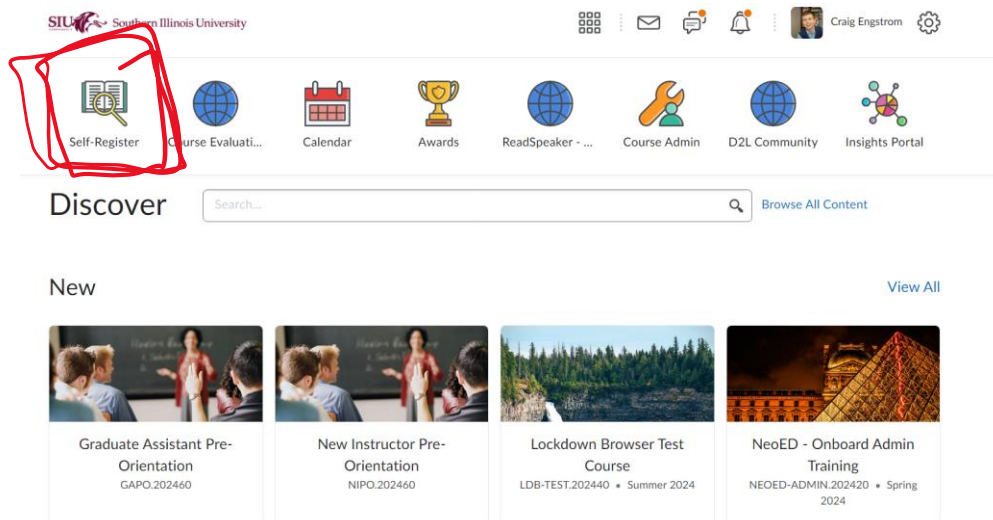

Figure 1. SIU login page to access MyCourses

Step 2. Self-Enroll in New Faculty Pre-Orientation Course

1. In case you are not already enrolled for this interview, please use this guide to self-enroll. Click on the “Enroll in Course” button.

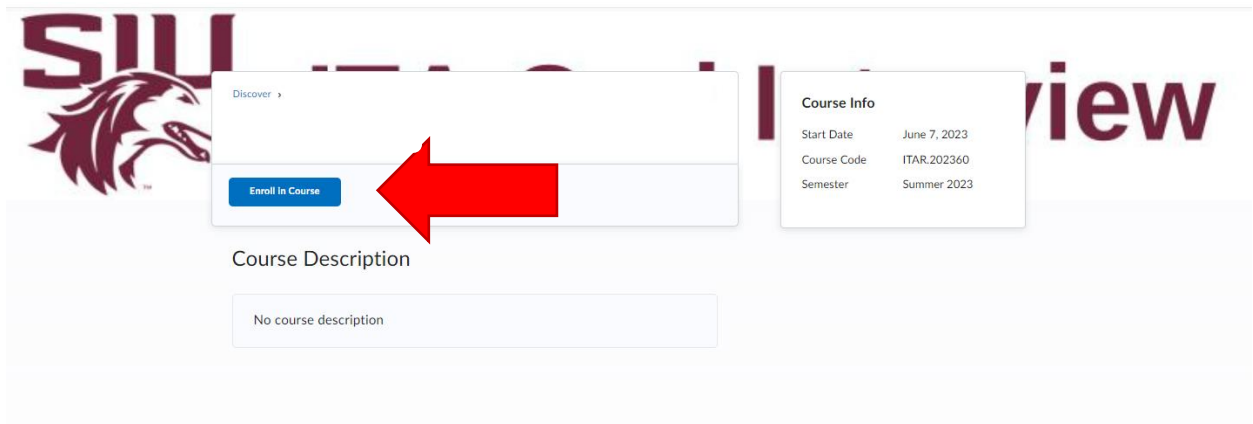

Figure 3. NIPO self-enrollment page

2. When done, you will see a window saying, “Successfully Enrolled” and “New Instructor Pre-Orientation Course will soon be available in the My Courses widget.”

Step 3. Review The NIPO Course Home Page

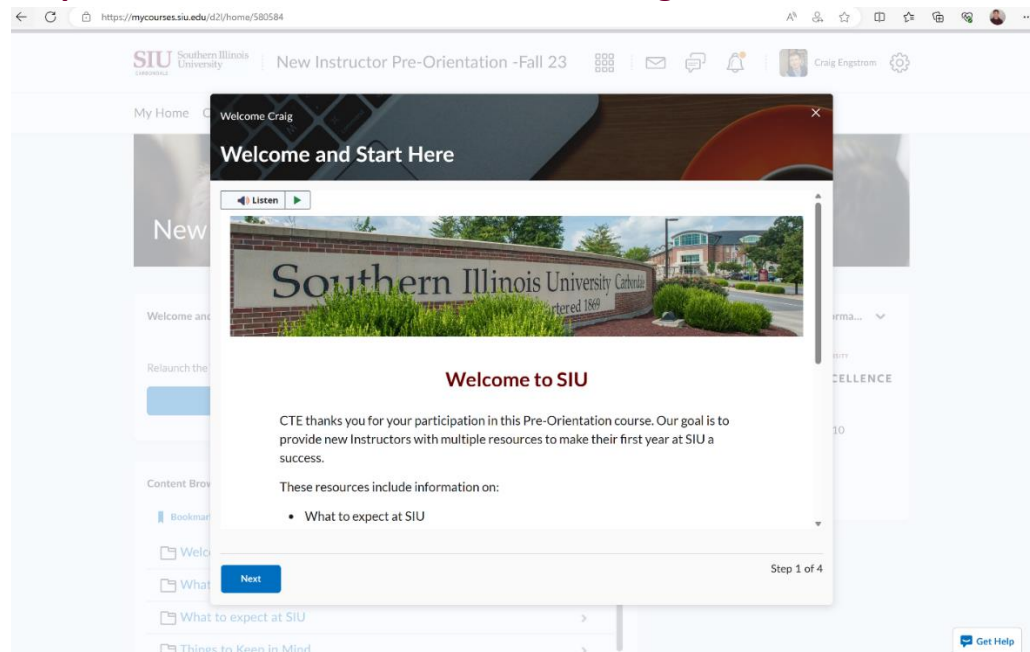

Figure 4. NIPO instruction pop-up

1. Read the instructions first and then close the window.
2. On the “NIPO” page, you will see “Content” menu; click on this to land in the main content of the training.

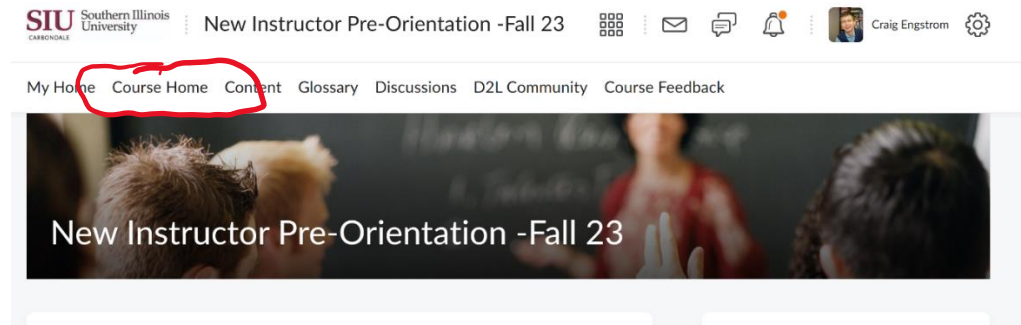

Figure 5. NIPO Content menu link

Step 4. Complete

Learners may complete the course at their own pace. This course is adaptive to learners’ experience with D2L. As you complete the course, you will observe online design best practices. Once all content in the course is completed, you will receive a certificate of completion.